In-person Homework Help

Free drop-in Homework Help is available for school-aged children and their parents at all Chicago Public Library branches. Certified teachers and trained homework helpers assist children in getting focused, using the appropriate learning strategies and finding the best resources for completing their homework assignments. The homework helpers are also available to answer parents' questions regarding their children's homework and offer suggestions on how parents can help their children at home with school assignments.

This program is generously funded by the Chicago Public Library Foundation. Contact your local branch for specific days and times.
